

Inspired by Olmsted

A carillon concert in honor of Frederick Law Olmsted on the bicentennial of his birth

Ellen Dickinson performs:

beneath a canopy of trees*

Joey Brink

*Third Prize, Inspired by Olmsted Competition

Oasis in the City: Change Rings Through*

Ellen Dickinson

*Third Prize, Inspired by Olmsted Competition

To a Wild Rose

Edward MacDowell

Geert D'hollander performs:

Four Olmsted Landscapes*

Peter Paul Olejar

*Second Prize, Inspired by Olmsted Competition

- I. Homage
- II. Niagara Falls
- III. US Capitol Grounds
- IV. Biltmore
- V. Central Park

Four Miniatures*

Geert D'hollander

*First Prize, Inspired by Olmsted Competition

- I. Spring Flowers at the US Capitol Grounds
- II. The Reflection Pond at Bok Tower
- III. A Court Dance at the Biltmore Gardens
- IV. Central Park in the Fall

“Landscapes move us in a manner more analogous to the action of music than to anything else. Gradually and silently the charm comes over us; the beauty has entered our souls; we know not exactly when and how.”

—Frederick Law Olmsted

About Frederick Law Olmsted

Frederick Law Olmsted, the visionary father of American landscape architecture, was born on April 26, 1822. 2022 marks the 200th anniversary of his birth. Throughout the anniversary year, the Olmsted 200 national campaign is celebrating Olmsted's life and legacy as author, journalist, city planner, public official, activist, and creative genius who transformed the modern American landscape.

The Bicentennial includes national and local events, advocacy, and educational outreach across the country. For more information, go to www.olmsted200.org.

Winning Pieces

In celebration of Olmsted's legacy, the National Association for Olmsted Parks and Olmsted 200 sponsored a carillon composition competition in 2021, Inspired by Olmsted. An expert jury, chaired by Washington National Cathedral Carillonneur Edward Nassor, selected five winners. First Prize: Geert D'hollander, Winter Haven, FL, Four Miniatures; Second Prize: Peter Paul Olejar, Raleigh, NC, Four Olmsted Landscapes: Homage; Niagara Falls; US Capitol Grounds; Biltmore; Central Park; Third Prize (tie): Joey Brink, Chicago, IL, beneath a canopy of trees; Ellen Dickinson, Wilton, CT, Oasis in the City: Change Rings Through; Honorable Mention: Tom Gurin, Raleigh, NC, Concealed Design

You can find their music at www.olmsted200.org.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION for
OLMSTED
PARKS