Henry Cole Biography

Henry Cole was a beloved elementary science and math teacher for many years before entering the world of children’s books. With humor, wit, and a finely tuned eye for nature, Henry has helped create over 120 books for children, including Big Bug, The Somewhat True Adventures of Sammy Shine, Spot, the Cat, Jack's Garden, A Nest for Celeste, Unspoken: A Story from the Underground Railroad, And Tango Makes Three, by Justin Richardson and Peter Parnell, and the Little Bo books written by Julie Andrews Edwards. Between working on books and traveling the country speaking to school audiences, he spends his time in his home state of Virginia.
