

Longwood Autumn Crossword

Across

5. Pierre du Pont's first 600-foot garden.
7. Pierre equipped this fountain with a "secret" jet that shot out of the stage to drench his visiting nieces and nephews.
10. A family favorite featuring nearly 500-feet of track.
11. The name of our giant water platters.
12. The name of our 86-acre Garden.
14. The leaves of this native tree turn fiery-red and can be found in our Meadow Garden or Peirce's Woods.

Down

1. There are 3 of these on property.
2. Pierre du Pont collected ideas for his Gardens mainly from France and this country.
3. The last name of the family who inhabited the property and our 'woods' are named for.
4. A Heritage Exhibit can be found in this former home in the Gardens.
6. The largest of these in North America can be found in the East Conservatory.
8. Our current season that runs through November 14.
9. This festival celebrates an ancient Asian artform.
12. This favorite fall tree can be found in our Meadow Garden with leaves that range from pink to deep purple.
13. This playground is perfect for all photo-ops.

LONGWOOD
GARDENS