

Upcoming Community Read Event

This year, we invite you to read Black Food: Art & Recipes from Across the African Diaspora by Bryant Terry, Bring Me Some Apples and I'll Make You a Pie: A Story About Edna Lewis by Robbin Gourley, and The Comic Book Guide to Growing Food by Joseph Tychonievich and illustrated by Liz Anna Kozik. Join us to explore how food connects to the world of plants and gardening and brings us together.

The 2023 Community Read is organized by Longwood Gardens and many community partners, including public libraries, museums, gardens and conservation organizations.
